

President of Electronic Sales Company, Counte Cooley, Appointed to Board by Governor Nathan Deal

Counte Cooley and Governor Nathan Deal after the Swearing-In Ceremony

Counte Cooley has been appointed to the Georgia State Construction Industry Licensing Board: Division of Low Voltage Contractors by Governor Nathan Deal. The Board serves to safeguard the public against faulty, inadequate, insufficient or unsafe electrical, plumbing, conditioned air or low voltage contracting, installation or repair.

The Swearing-In Ceremony took place at the State Capitol on September 9, 2011.

Cooley taking the oath to uphold his position on the Board

A hand shake seals the deal

Cooley has been a low voltage contractor since 1958 and is President and Owner of Electronic Sales Company. He has served as President and Director of the Georgia Burglar and Fire Alarm Association and has served as Vice President of the National Burglar and Fire Alarm Association.

Recently, Cooley was involved in chartering the new Georgia Electronic Life Safety and Systems Association (GELSSA).

Jackie Cooley, Counte Cooley and Governor Nathan Deal

Cooley and his wife, Jackie, are co-founders of the foundation "For Her Glory" a non-profit organization which provides wigs and other items to cancer patients who cannot financially secure these products. They reside in Gainesville, Georgia and have three sons and three grandsons.